Corporate Responsibility

For more than 26 years, Michael Season's snacks has held our company and ourselves to the highest standards of ethical conduct and personal integrity.

We set very high expectations for ourselves, and for the integrity of our company . We will not compromise those standards.

We are committed to offer the highest quality in our products. We set and maintain the highest standards in all aspects of our products. This includes delivering what we say on our packaging.

We are ever mindful of the trust our consumers, customers, and partners place in Michael Season's. This is why we taste test every production run. This is also why we use an independent third party lab to test our products that indicate they are gluten-free. It is a trust that we are unwilling to break.

Every three months we post our products new test results on our website . This ensures our products are what we advertise.

The reason that we go to these measures is to provide an exceptional product at an affordable price!
